

Let us look no longer on the past, but to the future. Let us seek to make life worth living and our home comfortable. This we will help you to do, if you will help yourselves. Come and see us.

Could any honest man ask for more?

The house of Rhodes, Haverty & Huppe, has always been known as the friend of the poor class. Thousands of comfortable, happy homes stood a few days ago monuments to its liberal and fair treatment, and to day, in the hour of distress of the people it comes again to their rescue, and offers terms upon which the most distressed sufferer can recuperate, live and be happy and hopeful. The company arises to the emergency—you may do the same. All we ask is that you treat us fairly and liberal as we treat you, and we will be your friends now as in the past. Go see for yourself.

If you are in need, come and see us at once. We will spare the time to wait on you and supply your wants for we are bound to agree.

THE FLOOD!

A. G. RHODES, President

J. A. HAVERTY, Vice President

J. A. HUPPE, Secretary

The subject of this sketch, Cap. I. H. Jordan, who for a number of years was one of the notable figures with the firm of Rhodes, Haverty & Huppe, at 611 Main St. Some months ago he severed his connection with that firm and was engaged with another of the same business. But, in the act of God, coursing the raging waters to lay waste and make barren the thousands of once happy homes, where comfort, love and contentment once reigned supreme, He saw that in order to serve his people, He called upon him to return to the firm of Rhodes, Haverty & Huppe, whose warm heart, small payments and reasonable prices on furniture would enable him to do more, in the hour of distress and suffering, for his people than with any other similar firm in a short lifetime. So any person who is a flood sufferer and wants furniture, you will, for yourself and honor to the only colored man in Kansas City who is in a position to help you in the way of furniture.

The prices of Rhodes, Haverty & Huppe have always been as low as good goods could be sold for. The immense purchases of this house to supply its 20 or more branches, backed by its unlimited capital, enables it to go into the market and buy at the lowest possible prices, and it always has been its policy to give to the people the benefit of its ability to buy cheap, by selling them the best goods for the least possible profit. This rule will hold good in the present emergency, and you will find prices as low as any house in the United States for the same class of goods.

There are only a few incidents in history more appalling than the disastrous flood from which the people of our city are now suffering. Among the recent disasters which are still fresh in our memories are the eruption of Mt. Pelee and the Galveston Tidal Wave. The losses in property in this city was greater in extent than in either of these great disasters, and while the loss of life was not so appalling, still the loss of homes and property of the poor, the enforced idleness of honest workmen and—throwing on the charity of the more fortunate, thousands of self-respecting, honest heads of families, brings to us a condition of suffering seldom in a community which in ordinary times is amply able to protect itself, and where honest labor asks charity from no man.

In this hour of our dire distress and real destitution of our people, it is a fair warning to, and they should heed it. Go to work and do something; learn to patronize racial enterprises; profit by the past and live for the future.

OZONO AND Cedroline

THE new, non-falling and infallible combined treatment for the human hair, OZONO and CEDROLINE, used conjointly, cannot fail to lend to the hair length, lustre, life, and beauty. One year ago the directors of the BOSTON CHEMICAL CO., with the sole purpose and intention to produce an absolutely perfect and reliable treatment for the hair, appropriated the sum of $5000 for this purpose alone. The services of three of the world's most noted chemists were secured, who, after twelve months of investigation and costly experiments, have successfully formulated a treatment so potent and powerful, yet so harmless and innocent, that its immediate effects upon the hair border upon the miraculous. This treatment can be used in all faith and confidence, as it is certain to produce results most gratifying, causing the hair to grow long and luxuriant, straight, and of a most delicate and pliable texture. It prevents the tendency of the hair to draw up, contract, curl, and tangle, thus making it easy to dress the hair in any style desired. It causes the hair to grow out on all bald spots, scant partings, thin places, and bare temples. It is sure to prevent the hair from falling, breaking off, and splitting at the ends. This great combined treatment is now the most wonderful remedy for the hair in the whole wide world.
